

Milena Galetin is an Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Law for Commerce and Judiciary, University Business Academy in Novi Sad. She completed her basic and PhD studies at the Faculty of Law, University of Novi Sad. Milena has been working in higher education for more than 15 years, including work on domestic and international projects, different seminars and conferences and published work. As a young researcher and post-doctoral researcher, she participated in project EFOP-3.6.2-16.2017.00017, Sustainable, intelligent and inclusive regional and city models, Veszprem, Hungary, Széchenyi 2020, Hungarian Government, European Social Fund. Milena was engaged in the international project, “Global Digital Human Rights Network”, organized by the academic network COST, supported by the EU Framework for Research and Technological Development. Her research focus is in the area of international law, and in the last few years on the relationship between law and digital technologies, in particular artificial intelligence (AI) – regulation; legal, ethical and social aspects, the impact of AI on human rights.

She is a professor at Jean Monnet Module “Application of EU values and digital transformation: Serbian perspective”, teaching two courses: "European values and artificial intelligence: legal framework“ and „European values and artificial intelligence applications in various sectors“ supported by the the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA).